

Please do not replace this radio station with another. This station has a positive effect on the listeners and in this generation it is needed. We need to hear that there is hope for the lost, and we find it on this station. It has given me hope when I was alone and lost. I pray that it will be there for many years to come.
Thank You